ROSPA

accidents don't have to happen

Home safety in Scotland

During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Elizabeth Lumsden: community safety manager

Scotland

Popn: 5.5 million

Official animal: Unicorn

Capital city: Edinburgh

Islands: 790

COVID-19: The current situation in Scotland*

Number of cases: A total of 438,257 people in Scotland have been tested.

Of these people: 418,800 were confirmed negative

19,457 were positive

Number of deaths due to COVID-19 :

2,492 people have died who have tested positive

4,216 deaths have been registered in Scotland where COVID-19 was mentioned on the death certificate.

*As at 20/8/20

Scotland's Coronavirus deaths

Scotland's Coronavirus cases

Confirmed date: Monday 24 August
Organised outdoor contact sports – all ages – following the guidance of relevant sports bodies.
Certain outdoor live events (involving open space or organised seating) with physical distancing and restricted numbers – subject to guidance.
Driving lessons can resume – following guidance
Child contact centres – following guidance.
Face-to-face advice services can resume – following guidance.
Bingo halls (with physical distancing and following guidance).
Amusement arcades and casinos following guidance (incl. enhanced hygiene).
Snooker/pool halls, indoor bowling – following guidance (incl. enhanced hygiene).
Funfairs – static and travelling – following guidance.

Confirmed date: Monday 31 August
Gyms (indoor) – following guidance.
Swimming pools following guidance.
Indoor sports courts – including skating and dance studios – subject to relevant guidance: • Children (under 12): All activity • Adults and Young People (12 plus): Non-contact only.
Indoor activities for children and young people (unregulated) – following guidance which will vary by activity.

Indicative dates liable to delay if epidemic deteriorates

Indicative date: Monday 14 September
Soft play (indoor) – following guidance (e.g. no ball pools, enhanced hygiene).
Certain indoor live events – subject to guidance – with physical distancing, enhanced hygiene, and restricted numbers.
Other indoor entertainment venues – following guidance – with physical distancing requirements (e.g. theatres, music venues). Not nightclubs.
Indoor sports courts – including skating and dance studios – can be used by adults and young people for contact sports – subject to guidance.
Stadia (limited re-opening) – following guidance (e.g. physical distancing, restricted numbers) – with option for testing on earlier dates subject to agreement.
Certain outdoor live events (involving focussed standing) with physical distancing and restricted numbers – subject to guidance.

Await further review
Non-essential offices and call centres can re-open following implementation of relevant guidance (including on physical distancing). Working from home and working flexibly remain the default.
Other indoor live events – subject to guidance – with physical distancing, enhanced hygiene, and restricted numbers.

A & E Attendances

Emergency hospital admissions

RoSPA in Scotland

- Registered Charity in Scotland
- Funding from the Scottish Government
- Focus on preventing unintentional harm
- Part of the Building Safer Communities programme

Building Safer Communities - partners

- Scottish Government
- RoSPA
- Scottish Community Safety Network
- Neighbourhood Watch Scotland
- Police
- Crimestoppers
- Inspiring Scotland
- Scottish Business Resilience Centre
- Fire and Rescue Service

#accident free

Free webinars

https://www.rospa.com/home-safety/UK/Scotland/Projects/Community-Safety-Scotland-webinars

Foodbank initiative

ROSPA
accidents don't have to happen

Next steps

Framework for Supporting People through Recovery and Rehabilitation during and after the COVID-19 Pandemic
August 2020
Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba
gov.scot

Thanks for listening!

Contact details:

elumsden@rospa.com