

Banksman Course

► Course objectives

This course aims to raise awareness of the dangers caused when large vehicles reverse, and introduces practical techniques and hand signals to assist drivers with this manoeuvre. Delegates will also be trained in the necessary skills to assist other drivers and banksmen.

By the end of the course, delegates should be able to:

- Ensure the safe passage of reversing vehicles in confined spaces
- Identify areas of danger within the site
- Demonstrate HSE's recommended code of signals
- Guide large goods vehicles, both rigid and articulated, using the above code of signals to HSE Guide Notes HSG136 standard

► Who should attend?

Any person responsible for assisting in the manoeuvring and loading/unloading of vehicles.

► Additional information

All delegates should be familiar with the latest edition of The Highway Code.

Delegates should wear suitable clothing, bearing in mind that the practical aspects of this course will be taught outdoors.

This course runs on a 3:1 delegate to trainer ratio.

Benefits to client

- Ensures the organisation meets the legal requirements when reversing a vehicle
- Reduce the number and/or cost of accidents caused by reversing vehicles

Duration

1 day course (including a one-hour theory presentation)

Location

Training can be undertaken at customers' premises or at a mutually agreed location.

To find out more about this course or to request a full course programme:

Call +44 (0)121 248 2233

Email fleetsolutions@rospa.com

