

Driver Development

UK Familiarisation

► Course objectives

This course aims to introduce delegates to the Highway Code and driving on British roads so that they can navigate themselves safely and with confidence.

By the end of this course delegates should:

- Have a good knowledge of the Highway Code and the laws, rules and regulations when driving on British roads
- Understand road signs and markings
- Understand how to react to signals at roundabouts and pedestrian crossings
- Be able to negotiate box junctions and crossings with traffic lights
- Be aware of general defensive driving principles and techniques

► Who should attend?

Anyone who has not driven on British roads, or feels they lack the confidence to drive on British roads due to their experience being limited to driving on foreign roads.

All delegates should be familiar with the latest edition of the Highway Code.

► Additional information

The course runs on a 2:1 delegate to trainer ratio (delegate ratios may vary depending on vehicle type).

This course may take place at RoSPA's Training Centre in Birmingham, or can be taken at customers' premises.

Benefits to client

The knowledge that your employees have been taught the basic principles of driving on British roads, putting them in a position whereby they are better able to avoid an accident.

Fewer accidents means insurance savings and less employee down-time.

Duration

Full day – 2:1 ratio

Full day – 1:1 ratio (two half-day sessions)

Location

Training can be undertaken at customers' premises or at a mutually agreed location.
