What questions will you need to answer to compete for an Industry Sector Award?

The RoSPA Awards: Industry Sector questions are below and show you what you will need to answer in order to gain a RoSPA Award. Each question has a word limit of 600 words and you can supply eight pieces of evidence, statistics and real-life examples. By providing this evidence it can help you achieve a higher award level.

1. How do your directors and senior managers lead health and safety in your organisation?
2. How does your organisation ensure that it has access to competent advice and services, including in relation to occupational health?
3. How does your organisation engage the workforce and their representatives in health and safety and what have been the benefits?
4. How does your organisation ensure that all its employees and contractors are competent to fulfil their roles in health and safety? Describe the approach taken in the selection and monitoring of contractors.
5. How does your organisation use risk assessment to identify appropriate control measures for significant hazards to health and safety? How does this inform corporate and operational planning?
6. How does your organisation ensure that health and safety information is communicated effectively within and beyond the organisation?
7. Describe your organisational approach to active monitoring and measurement of its safety and health performance, and how this continues to evolve.
8. How does your organisation ensure that it investigates health and safety problems and implements lessons learnt? How does it manage sickness absence?
9. How does your organisation review its health and safety performance periodically to assess progress against targets, set new priorities and then report on them? Describe how the results of reviews inform business planning.
10. Reflecting on the planning and delivery of your safety management system during 2022, expand on one significant learning point from the year which stands out more than any other.
