

The toll of drownings in the UK for 2005

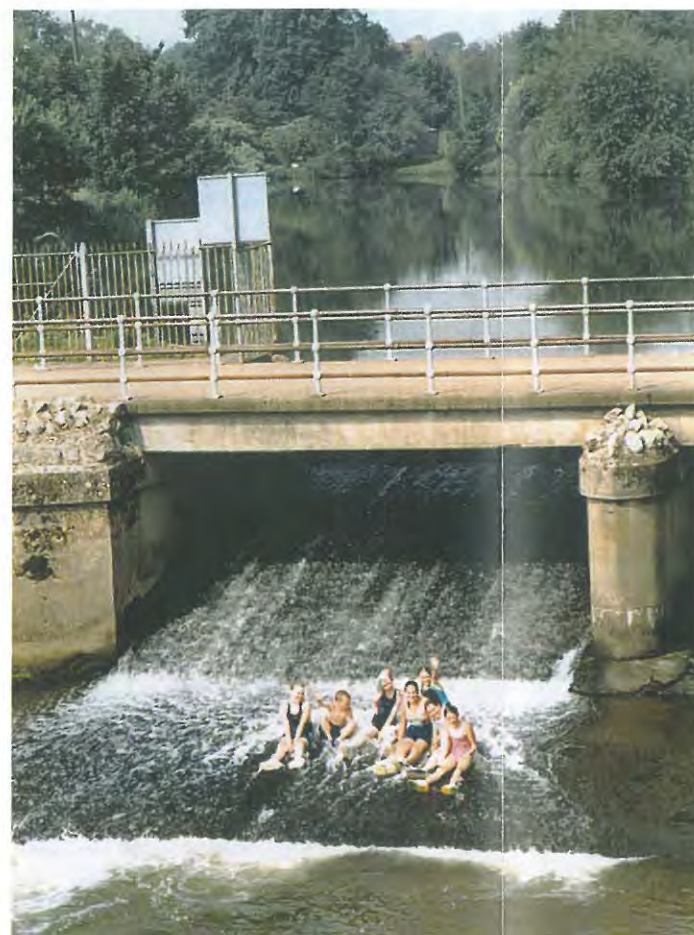

Child accidental drownings (0-14 years) by location

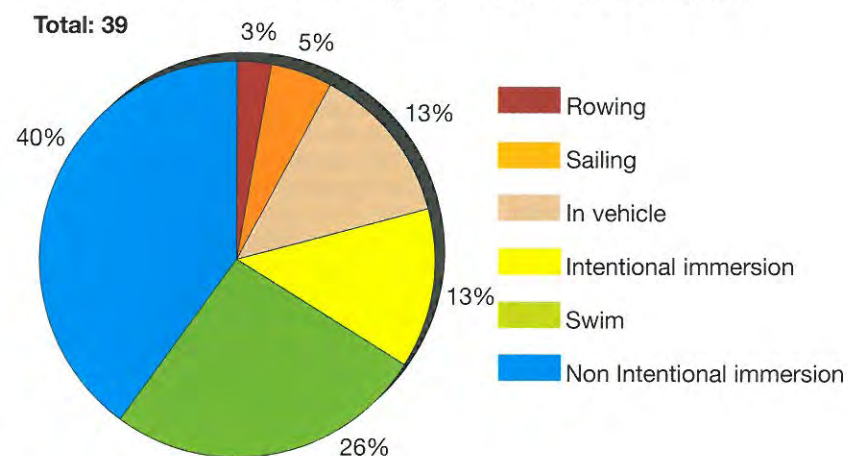

Adult accidental drownings (15 years +) by location

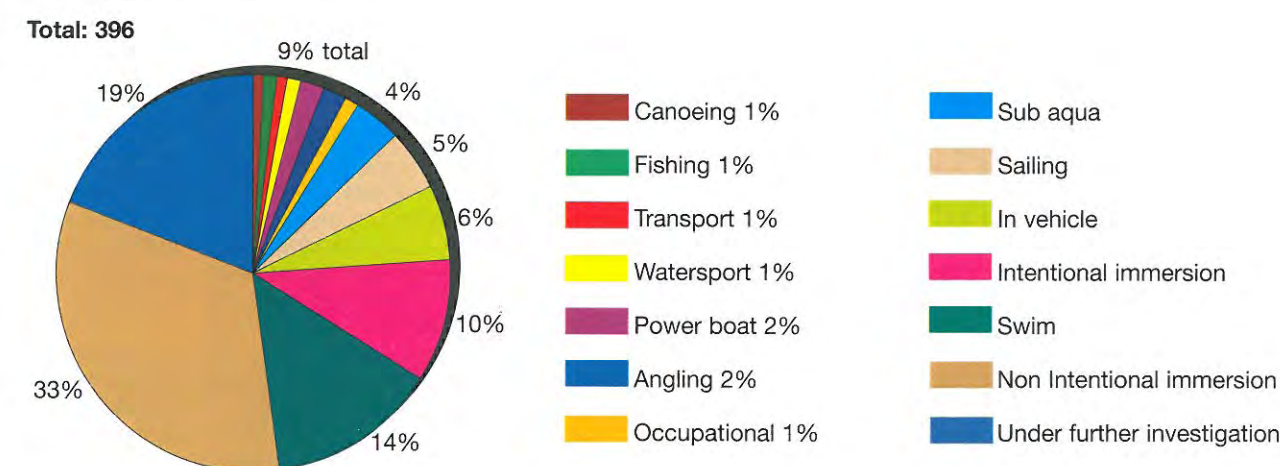

RoSPA's statistics show that in 2005 accidental drownings peaked in June with 64 deaths. Eleven of these were young men swimming in lakes and rivers. There is also growing concern over the 28 people who drowned in their vehicles during the year.

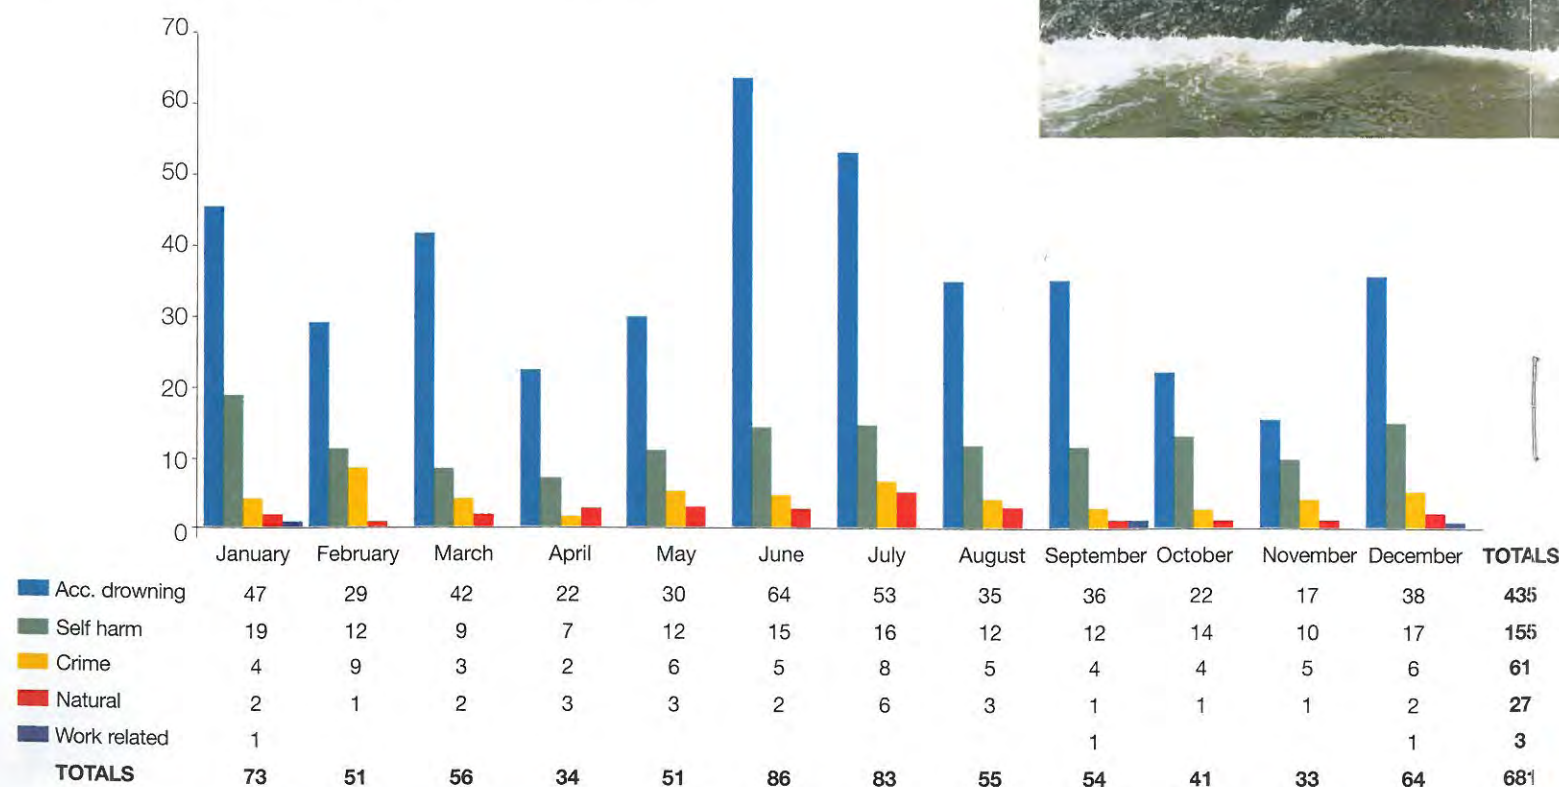

Child accidental drownings (0-14 years) by activity

Adult accidental drownings (15 years +) by activity

Water related fatalities by suspected cause

Accidental drowning by age / gender

