

Level 2 Banksman Course

Course objectives

This qualification aims to raise awareness of the dangers caused when large vehicles reverse.

The course introduces practical techniques and hand signals to assist drivers with this manoeuvre.

By the end of the course delegates should be able to:

- Conduct a Dynamic Risk Assessment of the area to be used by the reversing vehicle
- Provide effective communication to all parties
- Explain the risks involved with Banksman duties
- Explain the responsibilities of being a Banksman
- Demonstrate the HSE's recommended code of signals
- Guide large goods vehicles, both rigid and articulated, using the above code of signals to HSE Guide Notes HSG136 standard

Who should attend?

Any person responsible for assisting in the manoeuvring and loading/unloading of vehicles.

Benefits to client

- Having Banksman with a recognised qualification ensures the organisation meets the legal requirements when reversing a vehicle
- Reduces the number and/or cost of accidents caused by reversing vehicles

Call: 0121 248 2233

Email: enquiries@rospa.com

Duration

Half day course.

Location

Training can be undertaken at customers' premises or at a mutually agreed location.

Additional information

This course runs on a 3:1 delegate to trainer ratio.

All delegates should be familiar with the latest edition of the Highway Code.

Delegates should wear suitable clothing, bearing in mind that the practical aspects of this course takes place outdoors.

The customer should supply an insured LGV vehicle and driver with the appropriate licence and eyesight for the practical session.

