

National Diploma in Advanced Motorcycle Instruction

Course objectives

This course aims to provide delegates with the core skills necessary to demonstrate advanced riding techniques and methods of instruction.

By the end of the course, delegates should be able to:

- Demonstrate effective classroom management techniques, teaching aids and presentational skills
- Explain facilitators and barriers to learning
- Demonstrate their ability to give instructional commentary on all types of road and environment
- Suggest methods of providing remedial help and advice, and monitoring the effectiveness of interventions
- Prove their instructional ability through theory, practical, and classroom examinations

Who should attend?

This course is ideal for those who provide training to prepare other riders for an advanced test, or advanced riding generally. And those who wish to develop their ability to train to an advanced level both in the classroom and in-vehicle within the fleet industry.

Benefits to client

- DVSA approved

Duration

Five day course.

Location

This course takes place at various locations around the UK

Additional information

All delegates should be familiar with the latest edition of the Highway Code and Roadcraft.

RoSPA will provide PMR radios for delegates, you will therefore need to ensure that your helmet is clear of any other communication equipment. An exception might be possible if your headset will plug directly into a Kenwood type socket. If you have any queries regarding this, please contact us well in advance of the course so that we can make arrangements with you.

accidents don't have to happen

- It is an accredited route for riders to apply for registration onto the DVSA Register of Post-test Motorcycle trainers (RPMT)

Additional information

A detailed knowledge of Motorcycle Roadcraft and the Highway Code is essential and a course prerequisite. An awareness of the instructional techniques would be helpful. Outline knowledge of motorcycle mechanics, similar to that gained from an owners' manual, is necessary.

Delegates must have achieved Gold or Silver in RoSPA's Advanced Test, or equivalent qualification.
