Answer and evidence key health and safety management system questions.

- How do your directors and senior managers lead health and safety in your organisation?
- How does your organisation ensure that it has access to competent advice and services, including in relation to occupational health?
- How does your organisation engage the workforce and their representatives in health and safety, and what have been the benefits?
- Describe how your organisation ensures that all its employees and contractors are competent to fulfil their roles in health and safety, including the approach taken in the selection and monitoring of contractors.
- How does your organisation use risk assessment to identify appropriate control measures for significant hazards to health and safety? How does this inform corporate and operational planning?
- Describe initiatives or work being carried out in connection with the prevention of falls. (linked to awarding of the RoSPA Fall Prevention Trophy – entry-cycle 1 only)
- How does your organisation ensure that health and safety information is communicated effectively within and beyond the organisation?
- Describe your organisation's approach to active monitoring and measurement of its safety and health performance, and how this continues to evolve.
- How does your organisation ensure that it investigates health and safety problems and implements lessons learnt? How does it manage sickness absence?
- How does your organisation review its health and safety performance periodically to assess progress against targets, set new priorities and then report on them? Describe how the results of reviews inform business planning.
- Reflecting on the planning and delivery of your safety management system during 2024, expand on one significant learning point from the year which stands out more than any other.

Provide accident, ill health and enforcement data.

- For your own employees.
- For contractors and subcontractors working on your behalf.
- For incidents involving any members of the public.

No additional submission is required. The single trophy winner is selected from Sector Award entrants operating in Scotland.
